

THESE SIZES HAVE NOT BEEN TESTED

Please let June know at ticktockhobbies@gmail.com if you find errors in the pattern.

Size S

UPPER TOP

1. Chain twenty-three stitches. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, SC across the row. (22 stitches)
2. Chain-one and turn. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-two SC across the row. In the previous step's chain stitch, increase by doing three SC. Continue to work along the bottom of the original chain, and do twenty-two SC on this side. (22 stitches per side)
3. Chain-one and turn. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-three SC across the row to form one side of the triangle. In the next stitch, increase by doing three SC. After that, do twenty-three SC to form the other side of the triangle. (23 stitches per side)
4. Repeat step 3 sixteen more times, adding one stitch to both sides with each repeat. (24 / 25 / 26 / 27 / 28 / 29 / 30 / 31 / 32 / 33 / 34 / 35 / 36 / 37 / 38 / 39 stitches per side)
5. Cut the yarn and leave a long tail. Repeat steps 1 – 4 for the other cup, except do not cut the yarn at the end.
6. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-nine HDC. Position the two triangles so that the two points overlap, and do one HDC through both stitches. Continue to do thirty-nine more HDC, which should reach the end of the row. (79 stitches)
7. Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-seven DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-seven stitches, do a DC in each one. (77 stitches)
8. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-six HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-six stitches, do an HDC in each one. (75 stitches)
9. Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-five DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-five stitches, do an DC in each one. (73 stitches)
10. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-four HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch,

- do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-four stitches, do an HDC in each one. (71 stitches)
- 11.Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-three DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-three stitches, do an DC in each one. (69 stitches)
 - 12.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-two HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-two stitches, do an HDC in each one. (67 stitches)
 - 13.Chain-seven while skipping six stitches. One of these chain stitches will count as the turn. Do a SC in the next. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-five while skipping five stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-three while skipping five stitches. TC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. TC in the next stitch. Chain-three while skipping five stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-five while skipping five stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-five while skipping five stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. (63 stitches)
 - 14.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-nine SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do twenty-nine SC, which should go to the end of the row. (61 stitches)
 - 15.Chain-seven while skipping five stitches. Two of these chain stitches will count as the turn. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * two more times. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. DC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. DC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * three times. Chain-six while skipping four stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. The slip stitch and two of the chain stitches will count as a “pseudo-turn”. (59 stitches)
 - 16.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-seven SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do twenty-seven SC, which should go to the end of the row. (57 stitches)
 - 17.Chain-eight while skipping six stitches. Two of these chain stitches will count as the turn. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to *. Chain-five while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. DC in the next stitch. Chain-five while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * two times. Chain-seven while skipping five stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. The slip stitch and two of the chain stitches will count as a “pseudo-turn”. (55 stitches)

- 18.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-five SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do twenty-five SC, which should go to the end of the row. (53 stitches)
- 19.Chain-seventy-five stitches and tie off. On the other side of the top, re-attach the yarn and chain-seventy-five stitches. This will form the two halter ties.

SIDE

1. Starting at the base of one of the triangles, do thirty-two SC along this side. (32 stitches)
2. Chain-one and turn. Do thirty-two SC. (32 stitches)
3. Chain-one and turn. Do twenty-eight SC. Over the next two stitches, do one SC as a decrease. Over the last two stitches of the row, do a single SC as another decrease. (30 stitches)
4. Chain-one and turn. Do thirty SC. (30 stitches)
5. Repeat steps 3 and 4 thirteen more times, with a decrease of two each repeat. (28 / 26 / 24 / 22 / 20 / 18 / 16 / 14 / 12 / 10 / 8 / 6 / 4 stitches)
6. Chain-one and turn. Do four SC. (4 stitches)
7. Repeat step 6 twenty more times. Cut off and weave in the yarn tail.
8. Repeat steps 1 to 6 on the other side..
9. Repeat step 6 eighteen more times.
- 10.Chain-one and turn. SC in the first stitch. Chain-two while skipping two stitches. SC in the last stitch of the row. This will form a buttonhole! (4 stitches)
- 11.Repeat step 6 one more times. Do not cut off the yarn.

LOWER TOP

1. Continuing from the side, chain-one and turn so that you are now working along the base of the side pieces as well as the bottom of the upper top. In the base of the side piece, work in fifty SC. Continue working in the side of the triangle, and do thirty-two SC. Chain-four while skipping fifteen stitches. This will create a “keyhole” where the two triangles meet. Continue to the other triangle side and do another thirty-two SC that should go until the end of the triangle. Continue working in the base of the side piece, and work in fifty SC. (168 stitches)

2. Chain-four and turn, with the chain-stitches counting as a TC. Skip three stitches. In the next stitch, work in five TC. Skip three stitches. Do a TC. Skip three stitches. Repeat from * to * twenty more times. In the last repetition, you will not have the final skip three stitches. (127 stitches)
3. Chain-four and turn. These chain-stitches will count as a TC. In the same stitch, do two more TC. Skip two stitches and do a TC. Skip two stitches and do five TC. Repeat from * to * nineteen more times. Skip two stitches. In the previous row's chain stitches, do three TC. (126 stitches)
4. Repeat steps 2 and 3 four more times. Cut the yarn and weave in the ends.

This pattern is an original pattern by June Cheung at Tick-Tock Hobbies – please do not claim this pattern as your own or reprint it on another site or any other format. If you want to share this pattern (and I'd love it if you do!), just link to this pattern and give me the proper credit. You may keep a copy of the pattern for your own personal use, but please DO NOT sell this pattern. Permission is NOT granted for any finished products to be sold for profit, or for mass production, or for factory manufacturing of any kind. Thank you so much for your respect and understanding!

Size M

UPPER TOP

1. Chain twenty-three stitches. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, SC across the row. (23 stitches)
2. Chain-one and turn. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-three SC across the row. In the previous step's chain stitch, increase by doing three SC. Continue to work along the bottom of the original chain, and do twenty-three SC on this side. (23 stitches per side)
3. Chain-one and turn. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-four SC across the row to form one side of the triangle. In the next stitch, increase by doing three SC. After that, do twenty-four SC to form the other side of the triangle. (24 stitches per side)
4. Repeat step 3 seventeen more times, adding one stitch to both sides with each repeat. (25 / 26 / 27 / 28 / 29 / 30 / 31 / 32 / 33 / 34 / 35 / 36 / 37 / 38 / 39 / 40 / 41 stitches per side)
5. Cut the yarn and leave a long tail. Repeat steps 1 – 4 for the other cup, except do not cut the yarn at the end.
6. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do forty-one HDC. Position the two triangles so that the two points overlap, and do one HDC through both stitches. Continue to do forty-one HDC, which should reach the end of the row. (83 stitches)
7. Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-nine DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-nine stitches, do a DC in each one. (81 stitches)
8. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-eight HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-eight stitches, do an HDC in each one. (79 stitches)
9. Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-seven DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-seven stitches, do an DC in each one. (77 stitches)
10. Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-six HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch,

- do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-six stitches, do an HDC in each one. (75 stitches)
- 11.Chain-two. This row will be worked in the back loops only. Starting in the third stitch from the hook, do thirty-five DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another DC. Over the next two stitches, do a single DC as another decrease. In the next thirty-five stitches, do an DC in each one. (73 stitches)
 - 12.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-four HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as a decrease. In the next stitch, do another HDC. Over the next two stitches, do a single HDC as another decrease. In the next thirty-four stitches, do an HDC in each one. (71 stitches)
 - 13.Chain-seven while skipping six stitches. One of these chain stitches will count as the turn. Do a SC in the next. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-four while skipping six stitches. TC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. TC in the next stitch. Chain-four while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. SC in the next stitch. Chain-five while skipping five stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. (67 stitches)
 - 14.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do thirty-one SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do thirty-one SC, which should go to the end of the row. (65 stitches)
 - 15.Chain-eight while skipping six stitches. Two of these chain stitches will count as the turn. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * two more times. Chain-two while skipping two stitches. DC in the next stitch. Chain-one while skipping one stitch. DC in the next stitch. Chain-two while skipping two stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * three times. Chain-seven while skipping five stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. The slip stitch and two of the chain stitches will count as a “pseudo-turn”. (63 stitches)
 - 16.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-nine SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do twenty-nine SC, which should go to the end of the row. (61 stitches)
 - 17.Chain-eight while skipping six stitches. Two of these chain stitches will count as the turn. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping six stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to *. Chain-six while skipping seven stitches.

DC in the next stitch. Chain-three while skipping three stitch. DC in the next stitch. Chain-six while skipping seven stitches. DC in the next stitch. Repeat from * to * two times. Chain-seven while skipping five stitches, then slip stitch into the last stitch. The slip stitch and two of the chain stitches will count as a “pseudo-turn”. (59 stitches)

18.Chain-one. Starting in the second stitch from the hook, do twenty-seven SC. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as a decrease. SC in the next stitch. Over the next two stitches, do a single SC as another decrease. Do twenty-seven SC, which should go to the end of the row. (57 stitches)

19.Chain-seventy-five stitches and tie off. On the other side of the top, re-attach the yarn and chain-seventy-five stitches. This will form the two halter ties.

SIDE

1. Starting at the base of one of the triangles, do thirty-four SC along this side. (34 stitches)
2. Chain-one and turn. Do thirty-two SC. (34 stitches)
3. Chain-one and turn. Do thirty SC. Over the next two stitches, do one SC as a decrease. Over the last two stitches of the row, do a single SC as another decrease. (32 stitches)
4. Chain-one and turn. Do thirty-two SC. (32 stitches)
5. Repeat steps 3 and 4 fourteen more times, with a decrease of two each repeat. (30 / 28 / 26 / 24 / 22 / 20 / 18 / 16 / 14 / 12 / 10 / 8 / 6 / 4 stitches)
6. Chain-one and turn. Do four SC. (4 stitches)
7. Repeat step 6 thirty more times. Cut off and weave in the yarn tail.
8. Repeat steps 1 to 6 on the other side..
9. Repeat step 6 twenty-eight more times.
- 10.Chain-one and turn. SC in the first stitch. Chain-two while skipping two stitches. SC in the last stitch of the row. This will form a buttonhole! (4 stitches)
- 11.Repeat step 6 one more times. Do not cut off the yarn.

LOWER TOP

1. Continuing from the side, chain-one and turn so that you are now working along the base of the side pieces as well as the bottom of the upper top. In the base of the side piece, work in sixty SC. Continue working in the side of the triangle, and do thirty-four SC. Chain-four while skipping fifteen stitches. This will create a “keyhole” where the two triangles meet. Continue to the other triangle side and do another thirty-four SC that should go until the end of the triangle. Continue working in the base of the side piece, and work in sixty SC. (192 stitches)

2. Chain-four and turn, with the chain-stitches counting as a TC. Skip three stitches. In the next stitch, work in five TC. Skip three stitches. Do a TC. Skip three stitches. Repeat from * to * twenty-three more times. In the last repetition, you will not have the final skip three stitches. (145 stitches)
3. Chain-four and turn. These chain-stitches will count as a TC. In the same stitch, do two more TC. Skip two stitches and do a TC. Skip two stitches and do five TC. Repeat from * to * twenty-two more times. Skip two stitches. In the previous row's chain stitches, do three TC. (144 stitches)
4. Repeat steps 2 and 3 four more times. Cut the yarn and weave in the ends.

This pattern is an original pattern by June Cheung at Tick-Tock Hobbies – please do not claim this pattern as your own or reprint it on another site or any other format. If you want to share this pattern (and I'd love it if you do!), just link to this pattern and give me the proper credit. You may keep a copy of the pattern for your own personal use, but please DO NOT sell this pattern. Permission is NOT granted for any finished products to be sold for profit, or for mass production, or for factory manufacturing of any kind. Thank you so much for your respect and understanding!